CRESCENT DECO CO., NEWARK, N. J.

I wish to add my testimonial to the many you have slready published for the wonderful cures accomplished by Crescent Sagaparilla. I am in the employ of Messra, Geo. A. Halsey & Sons, Manifacturers of Patent and Enamelied Leather, Springfield Avenue, City, and it is my duty to attend to the fires and boolers in the engine room. I cample a heavy coid this winter, and soon after was attacked with rheumatisto. My limits became so lame and sore that I could work only with the greatest difficulty and discontfort. Soon I was compelled to remain home almost every other day, as I suffered such agony in the bother room that I could not do my work. Finally my case became so bad (and medicine did ms no good) that I want to the City Hospital for treatment. The physicians there prescribed for me but I grew worse. Then I want to B. For several years past only sister-in-iew. Mrs. Less Lannon, who lives in Anthony, Hunter-don County, New Jersey, has suffered greatly with inflammatory rhematism and nervous trobles, which finally rin into St. Vitus Dance. She was regularly attended and prescribed for by the beat physicians who decided after a long course of treatment, that her case was incurable. The decitors advised a change of air and residence, stating that temporary relief might be obtained by such change. but that medicine could not do herany good. Mrs. Lannon left Anthony in the automo of 1898, and came to Newark, and took up her residence at my house. At the time, her feet and limbs were so weden with rheumatism that she could scarcely walk.
